

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT (MEXT) SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FOR 2024
DEGREE STUDENTS
(UNIVERSITY RECOMMENDATION)

- Transborder Medical Program for Emerging Infectious Diseases -

MEXT (Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology) offers scholarships to international students who wish to study as degree students at the Graduate School of Comprehensive Human Sciences (Master's Program in Medical Sciences and Doctoral Program in Medical Sciences) at the University of Tsukuba.

Application Guideline for the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship Program for 2024 - Degree Students (University Recommendation) is as follows:

1. Qualifications and Conditions

(1) Eligibility

Applicant must be an excellent student from abroad or living in Japan to study as a new graduate-level foreign student. (※1)

Highly motivated and talented medical or graduate students with a background in life sciences who have the ambition to become “trans-border” researchers and medical care specialists are encouraged to apply.

(※1) Minimum requirement of Grade Point Average (GPA) of your current or latest academic record is 2.30 or higher (on 3.00 scale) and the same evaluation is to be expected during the scholarship period. Applicant must satisfy one of the qualifications or conditions in (6) Language Proficiency.

(2) Nationality

Applicant must have the nationality of a country which has diplomatic relations with Japan. In principle, an applicant who has Japanese nationality at the time of application will not be eligible. However, persons with dual nationality who hold Japanese nationality and whose place of residence at the time of application is outside of Japan are eligible to apply as long as they choose the nationality of the foreign country and give up their Japanese nationality by the date of their arrival in Japan.

(3) Age

Applicant must be born on or after April 2, 1989. However, the applicant from the Young Leaders Program can only apply for the doctoral program within 5 years graduated in the same program.

(4) Academic Background

Applicant must be a graduate from a Japanese university or have academic ability equal or superior to that of a Japanese university graduate before get enrolled. A person will be deemed to have academic ability equal or superior to that of a university graduate, if he/she

[1] has completed or will complete a 16-year school curriculum in a foreign country (or an 18-year school curriculum if he/she desires to enroll in a Doctoral Program in Medical Sciences);

[2] is or will be aged 22 or older and has taken an individual entrance qualification examination and has been judged by a graduate school as being equal or superior in academic ability to a university graduate (or 24 or older if he/she desires to enroll in a Doctoral Program in Medical Sciences).

Note: Eligible applicants include those who otherwise satisfy or will satisfy qualification requirements for admission to a Japanese graduate school.

Applicant who has no intention to obtain a degree may not apply.

(5) Field of Study and Number of Students to be enrolled

Master's Program in Medical Sciences	4
Doctoral Program in Medical Sciences	4

(8) Enrollment - Arrival in Japan

The day of enrollment will be scheduled sometime in October 2024 and the applicant must be able to arrive in Japan within two weeks before or after the starting date of the relevant academic term for that year set by the accepting university. If you are not able to arrive in Japan in the set period, you will be required to withdraw from the scholarship and travel expenses will not be provided if the applicant chooses to travel to Japan aside from the set period.

(9) Visa Requirement

Selected Applicants shall obtain a College Student (ryuugaku 留学) visa on the Japanese diplomatic mission in the country of their nationality, in principle, before his arrival in Japan. Accordingly, even if the applicant already has other residence status (“Permanent resident,” “Long-term resident,” etc.), the applicant must change it to the College Student (ryuugaku 留学) visa status and re-enter Japan. Moreover, the applicant should be aware that after expiration of the status as a MEXT Scholarship student and even if the student again applies for their original resident status of “Permanent resident” or “Long-term resident,” such resident statuses might not be necessarily granted.

Please note that the applicant will not be able to grant the scholarship if the applicant doesn't obtain a College Student (ryuugaku 留学) visa to come to Japan.

The applicant living in Japan whose visa status is not the College Student (ryuugaku 留学) must change it to the College Student (ryuugaku 留学) before the date of enrollment at Immigration Services Agency of Japan. Even if the applicant already has other residence status ("Permanent resident," "Long-term resident," etc.), the applicant must change it to the College Student (ryuugaku 留学) to enroll as a grantee of Japanese Government Scholarship.

(10) Note

Any applicant who meets even one of the following conditions is not eligible. If identified after the start of the scholarship period, the applicant will be required to withdraw from the scholarship:

1: The Applicant is an active member of the military or a civilian employed by the military during the arrival of Japan or the period of receiving scholarship

2: The Applicant is unable to travel to Japan within the dates set by the receiving university or MEXT (Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology).

3: Those who are previous grantees of Japanese Government (MEXT) scholarship programs (including those who withdraw from the scholarship program after the arrival in Japan). This does not apply to: those who have educational or work experience exceeding more than three years from the following month of the period of the previous scholarship to the estimated first month of the payment of this scholarship; and the past grantees of Japanese Studies Students program who have graduated or are going to graduate from universities in their home countries, Japan-Korea Joint Government Scholarship Program for the Students in Science and Engineering Departments and Young Leaders' Program. The MEXT Honors Scholarship is not one of the MEXT Scholarship Programs, so applicant who received the MEXT Honors Scholarship can still apply.

4: The applicant is already enrolled in a Japanese university with a residence status of “Student,” or who are enrolled, or plan to enroll, in a Japanese university as a privately-financed international student between the time of application and the start of the MEXT scholarship period.

However, this stipulation does not apply to applicants who are living in Japan at the time of application.
